DEDICATION

During the six years that Mrs. Hill has been commerical teacher at Jefferson High School we have been deeply impressed with her conscientious and successful efforts to improve our school.

With the desire to enhance the all-too-small measure of appreciation generally accorded her for the zealous performance of her duties, we dedicate the JEFFERSONIAN of Nineteen-Fifty-two to Mrs. Klara Hill.

HISTORY

Back in the year '49 twenty green freshmen started down through the Halls of Learning. We chose as our leaders, Darlene Yoder, President; Janet Swihart, Vice-President; Bill Robinson, Treasurer; Delores Evans, Secretary and Mr. Landis as our guide. We became fullfledged high school students by undergoing the tortures of initiation inflicted by the Seniors. The party given that evening in our honor made up for all the tortures we had gone through.

Continuing on our way we chose as our leaders, Dean Mann, President; Jim Hunsberger, Vice-President; Glen Ryman, Secretary; Bob Kropf, Treasurer and Mrs. Ashley as guide. Effie Lyons, Charles Brubaker, and Virginia Sill joined us on our journey. Sam Welker, Irene Welker, Betty Bickel, Darlene Yoder, Esther Gingerick and Verna Plank left through a side door. We had a scrap drive and picked corn to raise money for our treasury.

Entering our Junior year we chose as our leaders, Bud Bainter, President; Dean Mann, Vice-President; Janet Swihart, Secretary; Mary Helbling, Treasurer; and Mrs. Ashley again as guide. We gave, "The Odd-Job Man" as our Junior Play. It was enjoyed by all. We sold candy during the year. We also gave a banquet for the Seniors. Doris Gay, Delores Evans, Virginia Sill, Bill Robinson, Charles Brubaker, and Helen Fry found another side door and left us.

As we started the last lap of our journey we chose Bud Bainter, President; Dean Mann, Vice-President; Janet Swihart, Secretary; Mary Helbling, Treasurer and Mr. Bramblet as guide. We initiated the Freshmen and gave them a party in the evening. We lost one member of the class Jim Hunsberger and Keith Hartman came to join us. There is one member of the class, Bud Bainter, who has completed all twelve years at Jefferson. We are all looking forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet and to our class trip. We have all enjoyed our years in the Halls of Learning.

PROPHECY

Another tiresome day at the office and I was ready to take rest. Picking up the paper I read the headlines, "Students at Local High School Riot." There was something about this that made me think of my old High School days. Maybe it was the word "Riot."

I went on and read the article. It said the students just hung their principal on the flag pole for two hours. Kids must be getting smarter these days, we could never think up stunts like that. This reminded me of R.R. Well, he had realized his objective. He is a big wheel in Washington under the Education Board.

Turning to the funnies (no, I didn't see Chuck Tubbs) and the page of Radio and T.V. Broadcasts, I saw the feature show of the evening was to be "Glen and His Bubble Dancers". They were going to do something new. Glen was to be around with pins! I must see this, so while waiting I decided to open the mail.

There was a bill and a letter. I opened the letter first. It was from Bud, good old Bud, he was still trying (to get married that is). He was doing fairly good financially, but that could be understood as he was still single. In his letter he asked why and when we could have a class reunion. I got out my old annual and began to review old faces (much to my displeasure).

The first of the seniors was Mary Helbling. She was working for Mr. Bramblet in Washington. She always had to do things for him when we were in High School.

Then there was Effie she was running a nursery school. I say this because she and Keith Hartman have had only 18 children.

Bud had told me in his letter that Chuck Tubbs and Bonnie Patten had married. They were in Hollywood. Bonnie was making her first picture in which she starred as "Lady Bogart". Chuck was in the picture too. He was playing the part of a mentally deficient detective. He said he was just acting natural and they signed him up.

I turned a page in my annual to see whom I had forgotten. There was Marvin and Bob. Marvin was in the Air Force and I had just read recently that he had become a Jet Ace by shooting down 12 enemy planes. Bob was still in the trailer business and doing fine. He had moved his factory to New York, where there were more women.

Who else? Oh, yes, there was Janet. She was at the state mental institution. No, not what you are thinking. She was working there and had become quite a well-known brain surgeon. She will probably say that we can have the reunion there because it would seem more like old school days.

That is all of the members of our class and it is later than I had supposed. I will get to bed and worry about where to have the reunion tomorrow.

WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1952 of Jefferson High School, being of sound mind and good health, do publish this to be our last will and testament;

To the Juniors, we will our good sportsmanship.

To the Sophomores, we will the ability to make some money from their candy sales next year.

To the Freshman, we will our ability to ignore the kids who show off, and get along with the important ones.

To the faculty we will the following:

To Miss Markel, a Home Ec. class that always knows what she is talking about.

To Miss Thornton, a loud enough voice to shout over everyone at play rehearsal.

To Mrs. Hill, a shorthand class as excellent as this years' class.

To Mr. O'Neal, Patience -- just patience!

To Mr. Kennedy, glasses so that he can see what splendid players for next years team are coming up.

To Mr. Gohn, a band that can read music.

To Mr. Bramblet, a Government class that doesn't watch the clock.

We, as individuals, will the following:

I, Bud Bainter, will my All-American build to LaVon Yoder in hopes that he will appreciate it.

I, Keith Hartman, will my quiet ways to Dick Nagy, just in case.

I, Mary Helbling, will my ability to talk to a boy "without" flirting with him to Rosetta Patten, for obvious reasons.

I, Bob Kropf, will my convertible to Gerald Hile because he needs it.

I, Effie Lyons, will my slim figure to Janell Nisen so that she may become a model some day.

I, Dean Mann, will my dimples to Jean Stuart.

I, Bonnie Patten, will my sweaters to Vera Holdeman.

I, Glen Ryman, will my ever-ready wisecracks to Irene Straw so that she can be as popular as I am.

I, Janet Swihart, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Bud Hammon.

I, Chuck Tubbs, will my tactfulness and sense of humor to Dan Cuthbert.

I, Marvin Yoder, will my curley hair to Jim Gonderman.

To the Cooks, we will a full plate for all the big boys of Jefferson High.

To the Janitor, a bigger furnace room for the noon rush.

To Mr. Stickel, an accelerator block to give the other busses a chance.

To Mr. Aust, a foot-long knife to scrape all the gum off the back of the seats.

To Mr. Swihart, a waste basket for his bus.

To Mr. Brant, enough gas to get where he is going.

To Mr. Wyres, an over-sized club to show them whose boss -- but don't let Feldman's get ahold of it.

To Mr. Stark, an extra bus, about 15 minutes behind the first one, for all the slow ones.

SPORT NEWS

The season opened with the Jefferson Township lads traveling to Middlebury to tangle with the Middies. It was a royal race of the backboards, but in the final period the Midshipmen fired up their boilers by hitting 18 pointers, and steamed in with a 53 to 48 win.

Still warm from the night before, the Tigers, with ruffled fur, hit the path for New Paris to take the revenge out on the Cubs. The Tiger lads nabbed an early lead and held on to strangle the Cubs 58 to 49.

After a five day rest, the Jefferson crew challenged the Millersburg Windmills at home. The game got off with the Millers pumping two fast buckets, but the Tiger lads followed through and tied up the score. For a while it looked as if the game was going to be nip and tuck, but the wind changed and the Windmills broke down and rained 4 fast buckets to pull out ahead of the Jeffs. As the second half got underway, the Tigers found a leak in the dike and quenched their thirst with a 41 to 36 victory.

On November 16th, the Tiger tribe battled Our Lady on the Laker's court. The Kennedy kids were too much for the Laker Lads. By paddling into an early lead, the Jeffs cruised to a 66 to 38 pushover.

The Jeffs stayed at home on November 27th to clash with the Mongo Dragons. The fast moving Tigers once again proved to be superior over their opponents sending the Dragons home with a bloody tale of a 61 to 51 loss.

Bob Kennedy's boys moved on to duel it out with Bristol's "Graham-Crackers." The Tigers set the pace with their fast-moving guards, "Bounce-'em-in Bassett" and "Never-miss-Mann," but the Pirates hi-jacked the Jeffs lead to tie it up as the final gun shot. The Tigers slashed back in the overtime to take home a shakey 48 to 42 win.

Baugo Bombers was host to Jefferson on December 14th. The Tigers left a calling card of a 70 to 47 loss for the Jimmies.

HOLIDAY TOURNEY AT BRIGHTON

Brighton played host to the annual Lagrange County Holiday Tourney played December 27th and 28th. The Tourney opened finding two Elkhart County teams, Bristol and Jefferson, opposing Steuben and Lagrange County entries Orland and host Brighton. In the opening round Bristol was tagged with a loss from Orland. In the second round the Jefferson Tigers wrangled with the Brighton Wildcats coming out on top 51 to 39 and within clawing distance of the championship. The final round sounded and the two Tiger teams bounded from their corners. The Orland lads, catching the Jeff-crew with their tails down, nailed up an early lead and clinched the championship with a final score of 55 to 36.

Nappanee Community Field House was the battle ground where the Tigers and the Middlebury Middies staged an astounding battle of the buckets with the Tigers upsetting the Midshipmen with a 43 to 41 score.

The Jeffs and the Cromwell Spartans tangled at Cromwell with the Tigers nipping the hot Spartan lads in an overtime 65 to 61.

The Jeffs stubbed their toe for the chance at the County tourney championship when they were beaten by Middlebury 51 to 31.

The Tigers rested from the County tourney and hungry for a win, jumped astride the Millersburg Millers and rode them down for a 59 to 53 loss.

On February 1st the Jefferson lads met the Baugo Bombers at Jintown. The Tigers were stranded when the Bombers took off with an early lead and buzzed on with a 45 to 39 win.

The cold Jeffs tripped to Bristol to battle the hard swinging Pirates. The Tigers had the game on ice in the first period, but the Pirates came back in the second period and cracked the ice with 4 sizzling buckets sending the Jeffs through with a dripping 58 to 42 loss.

After the Tigers slight pause of two losses, they got back on the win path by skinning the Mongo Dragons 65 to 33.

On February 15th the Tiger tribe tripped to Our Lady to tangle with the Lakers. In the first half the Jeffs were leading the Laker lads, but the tide changed in the final period and Seminary boys taught Tiger lads that you can't take it with you by stealing two passes and hitting a charity toss for unholy 53 to 48 win.

SECOND TEAM
